Sir:

Terminal Disclaimer

The owner, Pfizer Inc., of 100 percent interest in the instant patent application, hereby makes the following disclaimer.

The above-identified application has been rejected for obviousness-type double patenting over commonly owned US patent 6,525,032, filed February 20, 2001 as a continuation of a copending International application filed on February 9, 2001. Any patent issuing on the instant application will accordingly expire earlier, i.e., on June 8, 2020, than the patent over which the obviousness-type double patenting rejection has been made.

The owner hereby agrees that any patent granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during the period that it and US 6,525,032 are and remain commonly owned. Any patent granted on the instant application shall cease to be enforceable at the time that common ownership ceases, although US 6,525,032 shall remain in force and be enforceable for any remainder of its statutory term as defined in 35 USC 154 to 156 and 173. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

The undersigned is an attorney of record.
